About Cantate

Founded in 1997, Cantate is a mixed chamber choir comprised of singers of diverse backgrounds whose collective goal is to explore mainly a cappella music from all time periods, cultures, and lands. Previous appearances have included services at Immanuel Lutheran Church of Evanston, Luther Memorial Church of Chicago, Wilmette's Baha'i House of Worship, and the Second Presbyterian Church of Chicago. Cantate has been featured four times in public concerts at the Chicago Botanic Garden's "Celebrations!" series and once at Evanston's First Night.

About Our Director

Director Benjamin Rivera is known principally in the Chicago area as a singer. He is the bass section leader of the Chicago Symphony Chorus, and also performs with the Chicago Symphony Singers, Bella Voce, and Chorus Angelorum. He has performed under conductors Daniel Barenboim, Pierre Boulez, Christoph Eschenbach, Richard Garrin, Anne Heider, Krzysztof Penderecki, Peter Schreier, and Duain Wolfe, among others. He is also the Music Director of Cross & Crown, a non-denominational church on the northwest side of Chicago. He recently completed a graduate assistantship at Roosevelt University's Chicago College of Performing Arts.
